17th FICCI CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AWARDS

"We must find it within ourselves to look beyond ourselves to develop the right thought level values in our actors for development, one of which is India Inc."

Padma Bhushan Mrs. Rajashree Birla
Chairperson, FICCI CSR and Community Development Committee and FICCI Aditya Birla CSR Centre for Excellence

"It has been personally a very enriching experience for me and my jury members. We came across some very amazing experiments and initiatives which have been undertaken, that can make India proud. I would like to express my special thanks to my fellow members in the jury and team from FICCI for assisting us in a very professional way about how to evaluate initiatives."

Mr. U.K. Sinha
Former Chairman, SEBI and Jury Chairperson

FICCI Corporate Social Responsibility Awards, India's first CSR awards was instituted in 1999. The aim of the award is to identify and recognise the efforts of companies in integrating and internalising Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). Over the years, a number of companies have been recognised by the FICCI CSR Award for their exemplary work in the area of CSR.

The selection process for the FICCI CSR Awards is extremely competitive, and is assessed by an eminent Jury through a 3 tier assessment process. The 'FICCI Corporate Social Responsibility Award' has the following categories:

- 1 Women Empowerment
- 2 Education, Skill Development and Livelihood
- 3 Environment Sustainability
- 4 Health, Water and Sanitation
- 5 Any other (for domains other than the previous four categories)
- 6 Exemplary Innovation (irrespective of the turnover of the company)
- 7 Small & Medium Enterprises (SMEs) turnover upto INR 200 Cr per annum

The award under each of the category is conferred on the basis of the turnover of the company, unless mentioned otherwise.*
