

Training Program on Result Based Program Management

23rd and 24th August, 2018 New Delhi: A 2 days training program on Result based Project Management (RBM) was designed to address the growing demand for CSR managers who can use Results-based Project Management approaches to identify, assess, plan implement and manage an ever burgeoning range of potential development programs and CSR Projects.

The training program had sessions: Concepts of results, levels of results, Stages in a Project Cycle, Situational analysis, feedback on projects developed, concept of Indicators, steps to conduct monitoring and various other sessions.

Various organizations participated such as United Way Delhi, Add Shop Promotions Private Limited, Aide et Action, Hindalco Industries Limited, Access Development Service, Cipla Foundation, Siksha Sandhan, Odisha Power Generation Corporation Limited, LTFS, Dharampal Satyapal Limited, JK Lakshmi Cement Ltd, ONGC, Reliance Foundation, Aditya Birla Finance Capital, Bank of America and Vedanta Limited.

At the end of 2 days training program, participants developed an understanding on the stages of project cycle, implementation of Results based management, Steps for conducting and designing monitoring etc.

